

PROTOCOL

on the Establishment of Diplomatic Relations between the Republic of Malta and the Republic of Croatia

In order to develop their relations on the basis of the principles of equality of states, mutual respect, self-determination, independence and sovereignty, territorial integrity, non-interference in internal affairs and peaceful solution of international controversies according to the United Nations Charter the Republic of Malta and the Republic of Croatia have decided to establish diplomatic relations on the ambassadorial level as from the date of this Protocol.

Both Parties have agreed that the provisions of the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations of April 18, 1961 shall apply to diplomatic relations between them.

Both Parties have also agreed that, pending the conclusion of new agreements, the former bilateral agreements concluded between the Republic of Malta and the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia shall remain applicable between the Republic of Malta and the Republic of Croatia.

Signed in Zagreb, on 30 June 1992, in two originals in the English language, both texts being equally authentic.
